

CRC Creates Trail Maps for Willistown Township's Okehocking Preserve

CRC President Ted Leisenring is a frequent visitor to Willistown Township's Okehocking Preserve with his Bernese Mountain dog, Eloise. He noticed that with the recent increase in visitors to Okehocking, many people stopped to look at the map at the kiosk in the upper lot. Most preserves offer either a digital or hard field. Five hundred were printed and more than 400 have been taken so far. A QR code has been added to the CRC website so visitors who prefer can view a digital map on their phones.

copy map, and it seemed CRC could help do the same. Ted asked Mary Hundt, Willistown Township's Parks and Recreation Director, if CRC might print up approved Willistown Township Okehocking Preserve maps with information about CRC on the reverse side. Mary approved the idea and CRC Office Administrator Charlotte Barton designed the CRC side. The maps were placed in a box at the trail head next to the dog
