

CRC Welcomes New Board Member Leonard Busby

CRC was delighted to welcome another new member to its Board of Directors in March, 2020. Leonard Busby is now Senior Counsel at Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhoads LLP in Philadelphia, where he was a partner for 28 years. He works on complex litigation and has argued cases in all Pennsylvania appellate courts, including the Third Circuit Court of Appeals and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. Leonard has also counseled corporations, individuals and foundations, and for many years served as chair of the firm's Pro Bono Committee. He holds a B.A. from Stanford University and a J.D. from Columbia University.

Leonard's environmental efforts have included serving as a VISTA Volunteer in Fort Yukon, Alaska. He is a current member of the Rose Valley Environmental Advisory Council. Having grown up along Indian Creek in Lehigh County, PA, Busby calls himself a lifelong lover of streams.

"I have loved streams and their inhabitants — fish, crayfish, bugs, snakes, frogs, and so on — since being a toddler," says Busby. "I love nature and the outdoors in all its beauty and complexity. The restoration and preservation of healthy streams and rivers is a strong part of that, and CRC does wonderful work I am proud to be a part of."
